34 CFR Ch. IV (7–1–04 Edition)

§ 421.21 What selection criteria does the Secretary use?

The Secretary uses the following criteria to evaluate an application:

- (a) Program factors. (15 points) The Secretary reviews each application to assess the quality and effectiveness of the applicant's approach to developing national standards for competencies in industries and trades, including the extent to which the application proposes—

- (1) To develop standards for—

- (i) The competencies required for actual jobs, including the increased competency requirements created by the changing workplace;

- (ii) Major divisions or specialty areas identified within the occupations the applicant proposes to study;

- (iii) The minimum hours of study needed to be competent in those divisions or specialty areas;

- (iv) Minimum tools and equipment required in those divisions or specialty areas;

- (v) Minimum tasks to be included in any course of study purporting to prepare individuals for work in those divisions or specialty areas; and

- (vi) Minimum qualifications for instructional staff in those divisions or specialty areas; and

- (2) An adequate needs assessment of the program factors described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section as a part of the project.

- (b) Extent of need for the project. (15 points) The Secretary reviews each application to determine the extent to which the project meets specific needs, including—

- (1) The extent of the need for national standards for competencies in the major division or specialty areas identified within the occupations that the applicant proposes to study;

- (2) How the applicant identified and documented those needs;

- (3) How the standards to be developed will meet those needs, including the need of business for competent entry-level workers in the occupations to be studied; and

- (4) The benefits to business, labor, and education that will result from meeting those needs.

- (c) Plan of operation. (15 points) The Secretary reviews each application to
